Why do we Collect and Use Personal Data?

In order to carry out its ordinary duties to staff, pupils and parents, the school may process a wide range of personal data as part of its daily operation. Some of this activity the school will need to carry out in order to fulfil its legal rights, duties and obligations – including those under contract with its staff, parents or pupils. Other uses of personal data will be made in accordance with the school's legitimate interests or the legitimate interests of another.

The following uses fall within the legitimate interests of the school:

- For the purposes of pupil selection (and to confirm the identity of prospective pupils and their parents);
- To provide education services, including musical education, physical training or spiritual development, career services, and extra-curricular activities to pupils, and monitoring pupils' progress and educational needs;
- Maintaining relationships with alumni and the school community, including direct marketing or fundraising activity;
- For the purposes of management planning and forecasting, research and statistical analysis, including that imposed or provided for by law (such as diversity or gender pay gap analysis and taxation records);
- To enable relevant authorities to monitor the school's performance and to intervene or assist with incidents as appropriate;
- To give and receive information and references about past, current and prospective pupils, including relating to outstanding fees or payment history, to/from any educational institution that the pupil attended or where it is proposed they attend; and to provide references to potential employers of past pupils;
- To enable pupils to take part in national or other assessments, and to publish the results of public examinations or other achievements of pupils of the school;
- To safeguard pupils' welfare and provide appropriate pastoral care;
- For the purposes of recruitment and staff training, including the training of student teachers and assessment of newly qualified teachers;
- To monitor (as appropriate) use of the school's IT and communications systems in accordance with the school's IT: acceptable use policy;
- To make use of photographic images of pupils in school publications, on the school website and (where appropriate) on the school's social media channels in accordance with the school's policy on taking, storing and using images of children;
- For security purposes, including CCTV in accordance with the school's CCTV statement; and
- Where otherwise reasonably necessary for the school's purposes, including to obtain appropriate professional advice and insurance for the school and employees.

In addition, the school may need to process special category personal data (concerning health, ethnicity, religion, biometrics or sexual life) or criminal records information (such as when carrying out DBS checks) in accordance with rights or duties imposed on it by law, including as regards safeguarding and employment, or from time to time by explicit consent where required. These reasons may include:

- To safeguard pupils' welfare and provide appropriate pastoral (and where necessary, medical) care, and to take appropriate action in the event of an emergency, incident or accident, including by disclosing details of an individual's medical condition where it is in the individual's interests to do so: for example for medical advice, social services, insurance purposes or to organisers of school trips;
- To provide educational services in the context of any special educational needs of a pupil;
- To provide spiritual education in the context of any religious beliefs;
- In connection with employment of its staff, for example DBS checks, welfare or pension plans; or
- For legal and regulatory purposes (for example child protection, diversity monitoring and health and safety) and to comply with its legal obligations and duties of care.

4. Collecting Personal Data

In most cases the school receives personal data from the individual directly (or sometimes in the case of pupils from their parents or teachers). This may be via a form or in the course of ordinary communication (conversation, email etc.) However, in some cases, information may be supplied from third parties for example:

- Other educational establishments (previous schools, universities)
- Previous employment

5. Who do we Share Personal Data with?

We routinely share personal data with:

- Other educational establishments (pupils may attend after leaving EHS)
- appropriate members of staff within the school (including relevant pastoral and academic information)
- CEM at University of Durham
- Third party software providers (WCBS, RM, Office 365, educational applications)
- the local authority
- the Department for Education (DfE)
- the Governors of the school
- Examination boards

Occasionally, the school will need to share personal information relating to its community with third parties, such as professional advisers (lawyers, accountants, HR advisors), debt collectors or relevant authorities (HMRC, police or the local authority).

For the most part, personal data collected by the school will remain within the school, and will only be processed by appropriate individuals (i.e. on a 'need to know' basis). Particularly strict rules of access apply in the context of:

- medical records
- pastoral or safeguarding files.

Staff, pupils and parents are reminded that the school is under duties imposed by law and statutory guidance (including Keeping Children Safe in Education) to record or report incidents and concerns that arise or are reported to it, in some cases regardless of whether they are proven, if they meet a certain threshold of seriousness in their nature or regularity. This may include file notes on personnel or safeguarding files, and in some cases referrals to relevant authorities such as the LADO or police. For further information about this, please view the school's Safeguarding Policy.

Finally, in accordance with Data Protection Law, some of the school's processing activity is carried out on its behalf by third parties, such as IT systems, web developers or cloud storage providers. This is always subject to contractual assurances that personal data will be kept securely and only in accordance with the school's specific directions.

We do not share and personal information with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

6. Storing Personal Data

The school will retain personal data securely and only in line with how long it is necessary to keep for a legitimate and lawful reason. Details of the length of storage can be found in the document retention schedule.

7. Data Collection Requirements

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education (for example; via the school census) go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

8. Keeping in Touch and Supporting the School

The school will use the contact details of parents, alumni and other members of the school community to keep them updated about the activities of the school, or alumni and parent events of interest, including by sending updates and newsletters, by email, and by post. Unless the relevant individual objects, the school may also:

- Share personal data about alumni as appropriate, with organisations set up to help establish and maintain relationships with the school community, such as the EHS Parents' Association and the Old Girls' Association (OGA) (alumni);
- Contact alumni [(including via the organisations above)] by post and email in order to promote and raise funds for the school [and, where appropriate, other worthy causes];
- Should you wish to limit or object to any such use, or would like further information about them, please contact Annelle Rowlands, Head of Marketing & Development in writing. You always have the right to withdraw consent, where given, or otherwise object to direct marketing or fundraising. However, the school may need nonetheless to retain some of your details (not least to ensure that no more communications are sent to that particular address, email or telephone number).

Members of the Old Girls' Association have been contacted directly about communication preferences and details of this will be available on the OGA section of the school website.

9. Requesting Access to your Personal Data

Under data protection legislation, pupils, parents and staff have the right to request access to information about them that we hold. To make a request for your personal information, or be given access to your child's educational record, contact Miss J. Rance rancej@edgbastonhigh.co.uk

You also have the right to:

- object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- in certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed; and
- claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the Data Protection regulations

The school will endeavour to respond to any such written requests as soon as is reasonably practicable and in any event within statutory time-limits, which is one month in the case of requests for access to information. The school will be better able to respond quickly to smaller, targeted requests for information. If the request is manifestly excessive or similar to previous requests, the school may ask you to reconsider or charge a proportionate fee, but only where Data Protection Law allows it.

You should be aware that certain data is exempt from the right of access. This may include information which identifies other individuals, or information which is subject to legal professional privilege. The school is also not required to disclose any pupil examination scripts, nor any confidential reference given by the school for the purposes of the education, training or employment of any individual.

Pupils can make subject access requests for their own personal data, provided that, in the reasonable opinion of the school, they have sufficient maturity to understand the request they are making. While a person with parental responsibility will generally be expected to make a subject access request on behalf of younger pupils, the information in question is always considered to be the child's at law. A pupil of any age may ask a parent or other representative to make a subject access request on his/her behalf, and moreover (if of sufficient age) their consent or authority may need to be sought by the parent. Pupils aged 13 are generally assumed to have this level of maturity, although this will depend on both the child and the personal data requested, including any relevant circumstances at home. Children younger than 13 may be sufficiently mature to have a say in this decision. All subject access requests from pupils will therefore be considered on a case by case basis.

Where the school is relying on consent as a means to process personal data, any person may withdraw this consent at any time (subject to similar age considerations as above). Please be aware however that the school may have another lawful reason to process the personal data in question even without your consent.

In general, the school will assume that pupils' consent is not required for ordinary disclosure of their personal data to their parents, e.g. for the purposes of keeping parents informed about the pupil's activities, progress and behaviour, and in the interests of the pupil's welfare, unless, in the school's opinion, there is a good reason to do otherwise.

However, where a pupil seeks to raise concerns confidentially with a member of staff and expressly withholds their agreement to their personal data being disclosed to their parents, the school may be under an obligation to maintain confidentiality unless, in the school's opinion, there is a good reason to do otherwise; for example where the school believes disclosure will be in the best interests of the pupil or other pupils, or if required by law.

10. Data Accuracy and Security

The school will endeavour to ensure that all personal data held in relation to an individual is as up to date and accurate as possible. Individuals must notify the school of any changes to information held about them.

An individual has the right to request that any inaccurate or out-of-date information about them is erased or corrected (subject to certain exemptions and limitations under Act): please see above.

The school will take appropriate technical and organisational steps to ensure the security of personal data about individuals, including policies around use of technology and devices, and access to school systems. All staff and governors will be made aware of this policy and their duties under Data Protection Law and receive relevant training.

11. Queries and Complaints

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, you should raise your concern in writing to Miss J. Rance in the first instance.

If you believe that the school has not complied with this policy or acted otherwise than in accordance with Data Protection Law, you should utilise the school complaints procedure and should also notify the Head teacher. The Information Commissioner's Office (ICO), can also be contacted, although the ICO recommends that steps are taken to resolve the matter with the school before involving the regulator.
